Greetings,

It is a privilege to welcome so many caring individuals to the Crossroads of America for the 2014 Kairos Prison Ministry International Summer Conference. I would like to personally thank you all for your hard work, perseverance, and compassion for incarcerated men and women seeking guidance and encouragement.

As the Good Book says, "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me." Your organization epitomizes that verse, and I commend you for your service to the state of Indiana and to the lives of the men and women you have served.

I believe that this organization exhibits the kind of leadership and love that is a wonderful example for Indiana. Your work has proven to be invaluable and has inspired those around you to strive to be better versions of themselves. Your dedication is exemplary, not only to your program participants, but to the community and state as a whole. For that, I am profoundly grateful.

Indiana is fortunate to have people like you serving our state, and I wish all in attendance this year a memorable and enriching conference. May God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Pence
Governor of Indiana
