Feedback on Listening

I never had anyone just listen to me before, I can't tell you how much it meant.

The man thanked me, but I said almost nothing, really. How did he receive an answer?

I tried it - had no idea it would feel so good.

I tried just listening to someone, I had no idea that I too would receive answers and a blessing.

I know this is going to sound weird, as Joe sat with me, just listening, I mean it felt like, I think, maybe what LOVE feels like.

I never thought of listening as a gift.

It changed our relationship completely, like someone willing to take a few moments with me, I do not think we will ever see each other the same again.

We sometimes think of trauma as "that is somebody else" but when I was able to open up it all poured out, it is like being washed from the inside.

One of the ways God is making me different is this Listen, Listen, Love, Love experience, I had someone share it with me, it made such an impact, I had to pass on this gift.

I think Listen, Listen, Love, Love can be summed up in one word, HOPE, it gives one hope.
