News from Kairos Prison Ministry International, Inc.

Vol. 37 No. 4

Kairos Welcomes New Executive Director

Kairos will begin the new year with the welcomed presence of our new Executive Director, Evelyn Lemly. The Board of Directors conditionally offered the position of Executive Director of Kairos Prison Ministry International by unanimous vote on the recommendation of the Board Transition Team. Ratification by the International Council occurred December 17, 2012.

This action was the next step in a very long process that began several years ago with the creation of the transition plan. Nearly 200 resumes were received, and the field narrowed down to ten primary candidates and finally the four finalists who were interviewed. The candidate that most closely resembled the profile was chosen.

The Transition Team strongly feels that Evelyn is the person God has been leading us to throughout this process. While each of the four finalists that were considered could do a fine job, the Team feels that Evelyn is the right person for this time.

Evelyn brings to Kairos a rich and varied background in the private sector as well as the not-for-profit/ministry field. Evelyn was a strategic business leader and spent more than sixteen years working in the agriculture and life science industries.

Most recently, for nine-plus years, she has devoted her employment to experience non-profit and ministry work.

Evelyn excels in general management and leadership, which should make her a perfect fit as the Executive Director.

Her Ministry experience began with Biblica. Biblica is a ministry focused on translations, publishing and Bible engagement to transform lives with God's Word. Evelyn then went on to work with Bible League, which is a global ministry focused on placing scriptures through Bible studies and church planting in over 65 countries.

Needless to say, Evelyn has had extensive global travel throughout her career and includes Asia, Africa, the Americas and Europe.

Evelyn has two Bachelor of Science degrees: Agronomy, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, 1986 and Agriculture Economics, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, 1986. In 1996 she completed her Masters of Business degree from Columbia University, Columbia Business School, New York, NY.

Tom Kemner, KPMI Interim Executive Director said, "Up until now, my time with Evelyn has been brief. But already I have gained a deep appreciation for the wisdom and skills she brings to this office and her profound love of the Lord."

Please join the KPMI Staff and Board in welcoming Ms. Lemly and keep her in your prayers as she begins her new role.

Kairos also wants the Transitional Team to know that all of the efforts in the huge undertaking are greatly appreciated. We will keep the Transition Team in our prayers as they continue to complete the process as is set in their Charter.

Julia Tutwiler Prison for Women Kairos #50

It was an amazing journey – Kairos #50 at Julia Tutwiler Prison for Women Wetumpka, AL. I was blessed to be the Leader of this Weekend and I give God all the glory for all of the wonderful things that happened.

It started with our first Team meeting on August 11, 2012. This was the most amazing group of ladies, and men also, who served on the Outside support Team to cook meals and help with the agape bags. There was a feeling of love among this group, most whom did not even know each other but by the time we had our fourth Team meeting, we were certainly one body in Christ – ready to be His hands and feet. When I say this group was in unity, that does not even do them justice. There simply are no words to explain each member separately.

There was so much love bestowed upon us from my church, Rainbow City First United Methodist. The Team members were served breakfast and lunch by members of this sweet church at every Team meeting. Also, my pastor allowed us to give a short talk about the upcoming Weekend at Tutwiler prison.

There was green agape given in the offering plate each week for almost two months and when it came time for us to go, there were many prayers strips, cookies and saltines for us to take to the ladies in white.

When we arrived at the prison all of the Team members were finger-printed. This was the first time our Women's Kairos Team had to go through this process, taking almost three hours, but my Team never became discouraged. When we finally got to the chapel, there was no air for the entire Weekend. It was 89° in that chapel but the Team had to die to self and do what we had come there for and that was to minister to the ladies in white.

It seemed as though God had selected the right lady for every talk and meditation. These were some of the most wonderful, heartfelt talks that I have ever heard. The music Team, whom had never met each other before, were just beyond explanation. We laughed a lot, we certainly cried a lot, lives were changed and God was in control of the entire Weekend.

On Sunday night at closing, as I was about to ask the Music Team to forward to sing our final song, Surely the Presence of the Lord is in the Place, a young lady in white who had been on the Weekend asked me if she could pray. "Certainly you can" I told her. Well, I wish I could relive those few minutes. She asked all of the Team members to sit down and all of the ladies in white to stand up.

There were many veteran Kairos ladies in the white at the closing, plus the thirty that had just graduated Kairos. This young lady prayed a prayer that had my Team crying out loud. It was the most beautiful thing that I have ever heard.

She prayed for God to fill the Team back up, to bless our families that we had left behind, to bless our finances, to bless us for so many more things - I cannot remember them all. Every lady in white had their arms in the air pointing over the heads of the members of Kairos #50 Team.

Talk about an ending! I have never experienced anything like this in all my years of serving on Kairos Teams.

This is what my pastor, who was on the Team, had to say, "I haven't yet found the words to express the significance of this past Weekend in my own life. All I know right now is that I'm a changed person and I have a great need to tell you that I was deeply moved to watch each of you interact with the ladies in white.

I was so proud of you pastor and I just wished the rest of the congregation could have seen you in action! I intend to journal everything I can remember about the great Weekend at Julia Tutwiler Prison for Women".

Another one of my new Team members had to say, "Kairos was a life changing experience. It is very hard to describe the presence of the Holy Spirit and how He tears down walls, removes bitterness, anger, resentment, disappointment, unforgiveness, loneliness, brokenness and replaces it with joy, love, peace, happiness, self-respect and gives them a family on the inside and outside of the prison for support and to carry the message of Jesus to the other inmates. It is very powerful!"

The quote of the Weekend that made me lose it was, "This is the first Weekend of my life that I do not feel judged by man." At the closing, the entire group of the women in white prayed a powerful prayer for the Team members for filling us back up, sending angels to surround us and protect us and to rebuild our relationships at home while we were gone with family and work and to keep us safe on our journey home.

This has been the greatest blessing of my life – hands down! I highly recommend this ministry as they have stolen my heart.

KAIROS

*A universal message of unconditional love that grows as time is recycled;
cleansing the universe, turning littered minutes into shining, rising hours; producing unselfish love;
adding hours to days, weeks to months,
years to centuries.
Equaling inconceivable and impeccable;
exponentially increasing energy that is the message of love;
which over the burning embers of time, is not blown out; but spreads in the flammable fields of the soul and wildfire of eternal love*

KAIRO'S OUTSIDE TYLER, TEXAS #1 A "WOW WEEKEND"

I have heard the talk many times before at KI closings what a great opportunity for the men in white to share their Kairos experience with a loved one on the outside. This time it was different.

I was listening to this message at a Kairos Inside team meeting in August of 2011. Something in my spirit lifted me. The lady sitting to the left seemed to feel the same spirit. I said, "If you want to get KO started in East Texas I believe I am the one to help YOU."

Though I heard nothing from her for the next two weeks God had my attention. I wrestled with Him for a week, arguing that I couldn't be the one to start it. I am "too busy" I protested. As audibly as ever God spoke back to me saying "you are not going to do it, I will do it through you!"

The peace that surpasses all of understanding came over me. "Okay Lord I will come along side of You and start Your Kairos Outside in East Texas. The rest is one God moment after another.

It came together September 21-23, 2012 when we in Tyler, TX had our first weekend. Green Acres Baptist Church Retreat Center donated their beautiful location at no cost.

When I started to talk about beginning Kairos Outside, it was clear God had already spoken to the hearts of many other women.

They stepped forward wanting to serve in the ministry. The Texas State Chapter New Starts Committee Chair said we should not begin any earlier than 18 months from the time our proposal was accepted. However God had given me the September date when Green Acres donated the Retreat Center for our use. Many in the community wanted to be involved.

Thirty days out there were 39 confirmed registrations. Our actual weekend guests numbered 22. WHAT AN AWESOME, LIFE GIVING, INSPIRING WEEKEND. Someone commented that putting on a Weekend was like giving birth.

The guests bonded on Friday evening. The entire team was a servant beyond what was expected. We had fun theme meals, agape was abundant, and the flowers for Flowers at Dawn were a donation.

A breathtaking KO cross was made by a KI volunteer as well as the table nameplates and a Christ chair sign. These items are now a permanent item for

Kairos Outside
East Texas.

The talks were outstanding, the prayer chain, shields and agape wrapped the room many times over. The Closing was awesome with many of the guests sharing the impact of the weekend. Several want to return as team members and some want other family members to experience the weekend.

The guests with the help of several team members are committed to forming support groups in their areas. The Council plans to have quarterly reunions so everyone can stay in touch.

Thanks to all for the prayers and support for our first Weekend. Our next weekend is May 3-5, 2013.

We truly marvel at the GOODNESS OF GOD

Sandee Perdue
Leader

In the Mailbag

Dear Kairos:

You saved my son - thank God for you and your special people. I have prayed for years that he would find God and have peace.

Dear Sisters-in-Christ...

I wanted to tell you how much the 3-day course meant to a dear friend of mine, currently serving her sentence at Cambridge Springs.

My husband and I visited with her on Monday the day after she and others 'graduated' from the class) and I've never seen her more filled with joy, peace, assurance of God's love for her, and hope for whatever the future brings.

She and I have been writing, for the most part, since she's been in prison. And, she's been reading the Bible and doing various Bible studies and reading other Christian books -- particularly the last several years.

But Love broke through last weekend during the Kairos Weekend, and she is experiencing the love of Jesus and the peace and joy of knowing Him in a whole new way.

She showed us the cross necklace and was so happy to have received it. She is also excited that Kairos comes in once a month and is planning to sign up for that.

She was very touched by the love and encouragement of each of the volunteers. You were 'His hands,' 'His voice of encouragement,' 'His listening ear' to my friend and I'm sure to every woman in those sessions. She also expressed that she doesn't feel "alone" anymore.

I praise God for the wonderful ministry of Kairos!

I just wanted to encourage you by saying the work you're doing is having a tremendous impact on women like my precious friend! Thank you so much for giving of your time, energy, and resources. But mostly, thank you for demonstrating the love of Jesus (in human bodies!) to women who are broken and hurting.

In His Love,
Ann

WELCOME TO BILL'S BARN

Hello, my friends. The Christmas holidays are upon us and we're fixing to finish another year of this wonderful ministry. I'm passing on to you what was written in the Leader's Report in a recent EZRA I received just a few weeks ago. This one is kind of special because it comes from Union Correctional near Jacksonville, where Kairos started 36 years ago. But I need to give you a little background on UCI #73 so you will be fully informed as to what occurred there this fall. So get yourself a good hot cup of coffee and read this with great interest and an open mind.

UCI, the flagship of Kairos, is one of two institutions in the states that have been allowed to conduct the Weekend using 8 Family Tables with the possibility of a 9th Qualifying Table for new volunteers. They could do this because of the large size of the room. Add to this that because of UCI's success, Kairos has expanded in the greater Jacksonville, FL area into several institutions. While that is wonderful news, it makes recruiting in Area 3 harder and harder. And so, when it came time for UCI #73 to begin Team Formation, the chosen Weekend Leader was facing a recruiting problem. To make matters worse, the WL's wife became extremely ill and he had to drop off the Team just prior to the 1st team meeting. The Observing Leader, Phil Smith, who had been to AKT recently, was chosen by the Ad Council to be the new WL.

So far, everything has been "by the book"; but let me first tell you a little about Phil. Phil is a retired fire fighter who underwent medical retirement because he rushed into a burning building to save a child; and in the process, he lost about 50% of his lung capacity due to the extreme heat and smoke. Now, my friends, that fits the definition of a hero. But his love of God and respect for the gift that God gave us in Kairos caused him to show another phase of his heroism when he was faced with the situation at UCI...he had only 35 men on the team. So after long efforts in recruiting, he went to the first team meeting, still with only 35 on the team. From what he learned at the AKT, he made the decision to cut the number of Family Tables to 5 so that the inmates could enjoy the attention they were going to receive from the 1-on-1 hosting. Phil was confronted with several challenges to his leadership from team members who were upset that UCI was not going to have 8 Family Tables, but he stuck with his conviction.

I want you to read the rest of this story in Phil's words as he wrote in the Leader's Report in EZRA:

It is with great pleasure to submit this report with great honor. Kairos 73 was a great success and I am pleased to announce that the goals that were set were made in full. As you know the team was met with many obstacles.

Our original Team Leader, James Pena, had to withdraw from the leadership role as the team leader do to family health issues and it was decided for me to become the Team Leader. The support I got was so overwhelming. I watched as God took our Team and formed it into a master-piece. I was faced with many decisions to make and with the help of my Ad Council Chair, Bob Wilmot and Advising Leader, Jack Tarr, my head Clergy, Bobby Fallin, and with the help of Kairos Wisdom from Ezra, the decisions I made were kept and followed through. This Team was kept in between the river banks of Kairos procedures as it should.

One of the decisions that had to be made, and after seeing it happen, I have to say it was the best thing in my opinion that we could ever had done. In the past at UCI we were able to go in and do a 8 table setting with a 9th table for new volunteers. Being faced with other Teams being formed at other institutions, we were kept with a 5 Family Table setting. This opened a door of opportunities that we were not able to do on previous Kairos teams! With this in mind, we were able to divide our meeting room into two sections. We had a community room and a chapel. This showed our participants a true meaning of chapel instead of just turning a poster board around showing we were in chapel like before. In the past with so many people, the room setting would not allow us to set up like we were able to do so with Kairos 73. I, along with many others, felt this showed a more personal effect to the participants, not only by showing a separation of chapel and community settings, but also we found that more time was spent on what the Kairos program was designed to be done. There was no rushing of our time, we were able to have longer breaks which allowed more time to get to know the participants and show them the love and attention they needed, to listen longer to them, and to have the opportunities to wit- ness to them as well. All in all we were able to give our Residents more one-on-one time and it also gave them more time to partake longer in things like open mike, and share of their poster times, too. Having experienced Kairos at UCI with both settings, I know for me personally and seeing how things went, that a 5 table setting is more efficient and gave the opportunity to present Kairos at its best, from the beginning to the end. It would be my recommendation that the Ad Council review this and take this under consideration to follow suit.

Thirty participants were represented at Kairos 73 and as stated before, it was so wonderful to see our Lord work with the team. Many men found salvation and were brought to Christ. Many came to a true understanding that there is hope inside a prison setting and there is a true unconditional love out there through Christ. All learned that prayer and share works! I do not know of one participant that did not partake in the program. All showed great signs of improvement and found new friends they never had. God was in control throughout the whole weekend and not only moved on the participants, but also on volunteers, too. How beautiful it was to be able to be a part of this and know that each and every one of us let God lead us as a team that united as one and stayed in between the riverbanks of Kairos.

Challenges came but I know God was in control and as the Leader of Kairos 73, I must say it just could not have been any better. I thank all who supported me and the Team. There was no "I" pm tjos Team! ent in as a Team and came out as a Team. This was a Team that God showed that, through Him, all things are possible. Kairos 73 was a great success.

Sincerely,

Phil Smith

I want to add that within 30 minutes of reading Phil's EZ-RA report, I received 4 additional e-mails from members of the UCI #73 team. In summary of all 4, they basically said, "I went into UCI 73 with negative feelings about not doing an 8-table Weekend, but boy was I wrong. I've never seen anything like this. It was an incredible Weekend. We did not lose an inmate, and we had more time to spend with them, to sing songs with them, to witness to them than ever before. I'm going to the next Ad Council meeting with the pledge that I will work my tail off to get enough team members to have 8 Family tables. But if something like this ever happens again, I will support cutting of the number of Tables to fit the number of inmates."

Go grab another cup of coffee and ponder this and pray about it. And we'll visit about it whenever we find the time. Until next time...

An Unexpected Calling

Prison ministry was not a calling John Carroll Catholic High School Librarian Jenny Walker expected. Walker's father owned his own drugstore, facing break-ins and robberies, sometimes even at gunpoint. "I developed a harsh view of criminals and had no interest in helping them," Walker says. "I had no sympathy for criminals and never thought about prison ministry."

After several years, though, God changed Walker's harsh view on the incarcerated when she became acquainted with the Kairos Prison Ministry. Kairos, meaning "God's Special Time," is a ministry focused specifically on bringing Christianity directly to prisons and to those affected by anyone who has been incarcerated. It has 36,000 volunteers dedicating over three million service hours every year in over four hundred institutions, and in 2000 Walker found herself one of them.

At that time, Walker met a few people who were active in the ministry. At first she simply agreed to be a part of prayer vigils and even baked cookies for the inmates. Still, she never felt the call to minister within the prisons. Two years later, however, Walker was asked to serve on a Kairos team for Tutwiler prison; this time she said yes.

The process of becoming a team member was not simple. Walker was required to read and study a lengthy manual, collect signatures and letters, create a paper chain, enlist volunteers, collect donations, and obtain thirty-six hours of training. And Walker had her own set of concerns. "I was anxious that I might make mistakes--" Walker admits, "--that I might let a judgmental attitude stifle the work of the Holy Spirit." But Walker had nothing to be anxious about. Walker says that God's love flowed through her as she bonded with the women of Tutwiler Prison. Walker prayed with the women, holding their hands and embracing them with acceptance and love. "I experienced God's power at work as I never had before," Walker shares. "Not just in the lives of the prison residents, but in my own life as well."

Today, ten years later, Walker not only remains an active volunteer in Kairos Prison Ministry but also Kairos Outside, a program dedicated to female members and friends of the incarcerated. She is also currently the Secretary for the Alabama Kairos State Committee.

AKT is for Kairos Inside, Outside and Torch volunteers who are in or will be in a Weekend leadership role, including Advisory Council or State Chapter positions, anywhere within the Kairos program. Advanced Kairos Training gives the what, who and why of the Kairos Inside ministry. Kairos policy requires that all weekend leaders must have attended AKT-Inside prior to leading a Weekend.

Principle Statements Concerning AKT

Expenses

1. All AKTs are essentially free to any and all attendees.
2. However, paying the expenses of an attendee for AKT should be borne by the sponsoring Advisory Council (or State Chapter Committee in certain hardship cases), just as it is done in meeting other Weekend expenses.
3. This means that all Advisory Councils should be budgeting, not only for the expense of conducting Weekends, but also for any AKT expenses deemed necessary for future Weekend Leaders or other attendees that the Advisory Council wants to attend.
4. If an attendee wishes to make a personal gift to help defray the costs of attending an AKT, he/she should make their donation directly to his/her sponsoring Advisory Council, and NOT to the State hosting the AKT.

The Advisory Council will make the payment to the hosting State, as in 2. above. Since an attendee's gift to the Advisory Council is a donation, it is subject to an affiliation fee due from the Advisory Council or State.

Where Can Kairos Volunteers Learn More About Worship?

Leaders from more than fifty denominations attend the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies (IWS) and take courses rooted in the biblical narrative, drawing on the rich treasures of Christian history, and committed to glorifying God in multiple cultural contexts. Students study with a superior faculty of worship scholars, who also hold full-time positions in colleges, seminaries and/or churches. Many graduates participate in the Kairos Prison Ministry, and also serve as music ministers, worship leaders and pastors.

Offering both the Master of Worship Studies and the Doctor of Worship Studies degrees, IWS combines distance education with on-campus classes. One week on-campus intensives for each course are held twice each year (January and June) at the Jacksonville campus, but most of the work is accomplished at home and forwarded to professors. A doctorate can be completed in three years and a Masters in two years. The IWS education is designed to fit the student's schedule and budget. The result is an education that prepares Christian leaders to participate more effectively and spiritually in Kairos and other Christian ministries. IWS holds accredited status with the Commission on Accreditation of the Association for Biblical Higher Education, a USDE and CHEA authorized accrediting association.

Interested Kairos volunteers are invited to visit the website at www.iws.edu, or e-mail admissions@iws.edu, or call 1-800-282-2077. You may also contact David Garmus, who is currently a doctoral student as well as Vice Chair of Long Range Planning on the Kairos Board of Directors.

Let's Have a Kairos Christmas!

This could be the number one fundraising and recruiting tool for Kairos Prison Ministry International for years to come. And all you have to do is to spread the joy of Kairos by making a gift of our Kairos CDs and book with all proceeds going to Kairos:

The Kairos Cantata is the most complete and compelling picture of the life-changing work of the Kairos Prison Ministry in story and song. Movingly narrated by award-winning and Pulitzer-nominated author Robert Hitt Neill (known as Uncle Bob in Kairos), the CD features every genre of music from country to bluegrass to classic rock to reggae. These dozen original compositions make for an inspiring uplifting and thoroughly enjoyable hour of listening. - Suggested Donation: $20

MS Karo Tales book – stories from real Kairos Weekends: The Warm & Fuzzy & Funny - Suggested Donation: $25

Praise and Worship CD – Two dozen Kairos songs in the well-known MS Karo style. A true worship experience! - Suggested Donation: $20

Praise and Worship Accompaniment CD – Music only from the Praise and Worship CD. Great for performances or leading a Kairos Weekend. - Suggested Donation: $15

Praise and Worship Music Leaders Instructional CD – learn to lead the music on a Kairos Weekend - Suggested Donation: $10

Remember, all products are 100% Kairos Fundraisers!
